

“Map of the Stacks”

Books in the Calaveras County Library Genealogy Section

Books collected and managed by Calaveras Genealogical Society, are available for research in the Genealogy section at the Calaveras County Library, located at 1299 Gold Hunter Road, San Andreas, California. The books may not be checked out. Two sets of stacks are reserved for Genealogy books: the tall stacks on the left wall just beyond the “Genealogy” sign, and the short stacks that separate the main public area from the Genealogy section. Both are divided into five sections vertically; the tall stacks have six shelves; the short stacks have four. The diagrams and listings below locate books by categories that are roughly consistent with the genealogical filing systems used in most Family History Centers and Genealogical libraries worldwide. For the purpose of this overview, the sections will be identified by stack (Tall or Short), sections 1 through 5 (moving from left to right facing the stack), and shelf numbers 1 through 6, or 1 through 4, (from top to bottom.)
